

Virgin Australia's sports industry baggage allowance

Virgin Australia is a proud supporter of Australian sport. A baggage allowance and service for players and members of sporting organisations will ensure a seamless travel experience.

Benefits at a glance

Individual travellers can now access up to 32kg of checked baggage across 2 pieces of checked baggage when travelling domestically within Australia on Virgin Australia (excludes Economy Lite fares).*

Eligibility

To be eligible for Virgin Australia's sports baggage allowance, travellers must meet at least one of the following criteria:

- Team members, athletes, managers or support staff travelling to/from a sporting event
- Members of a registered sporting club or recognised sporting team travelling to/from a sporting event
- Financial members of a registered sporting association or club travelling to/from a sporting event
- Traveling with Triathlon Australia
- All requests must be made via email to sport@virginaustralia.com a minimum of two business days prior to travel.

How to book

Once you have booked a domestic flight with Virgin Australia, note your booking reference number.

Email sport@virginaustralia.com with your booking reference number, the name of your sporting organisation, club, team or event that you are travelling to, and your membership number.

Virgin Australia encourages eligible individuals to book flights via your current travel provider or travel agent.

In the event that booking via a travel agent is not an option, bookings can be made via our website www.virginaustralia.com.
